

Senior and Community Center Expansion Project

Significant Events Historical Timeline

- 1990's The discussion began to expand the Senior and Community Center due to Constrained space and to plan for the Baby Boomers
- 2003 First conceptual plan was completed
- 2005 City Council adopted a goal to complete the project
- 2008 The City went out for a Bond to fund the Senior and Community Center, improve playgrounds and softball fields. Bond failed by a narrow margin
- 2008 Recession
- 2014 Staff asked if the Senior and Community Center should stay at Chintimini Park or move to a new location based on input generated from the Master Plan process
- 2014 City Council directed staff to keep the Senior and Community Center at Chintimini Park and to develop the conceptual plan
- 2015 Parks and Recreation Master Plan adopted
- 2016 PIVOT architecture hired to develop conceptual plan
- 2016 Three public meetings were held
- 2017 Parks, Natural Areas and Recreation Advisory Board reviewed conceptual plans and through discussion, preferred 4 flipped
- 2017 Project was presented at a City Council work session